REPORT

Subject (in full) Dr. J.W. Ross; - alleged smuggling activities.

Made by ... D.S. Pitts

On August 17, 1934 an Australian calling himself Dr. J.W. Ross approached a certain person with the request that he be placed in touch with somebody who could translate Greek into English and vice-versa, as he (Ross) was making enquiries on behalf of the Shanghai Municipal Police into the activities of an international gang of narcotic smugglers.

The following information has been secured regarding Ross :-

A native of Richmond (N.S.W.) he was born about

34 years ago. He obtained a medical degree (M.D.) in Johannesburg, S.A., and from January 1, 1923 until November 17, 1926 acted as private secretary to D.S. Davidson, General Manager of H.E. Babb & Co. Ltd., Carlton House, Eloff St., Johannesburg.

From August 1, 1931 until April, 1933 Ross acted in a secretarial capacity to the Minister of the Court to H.I.H. Shah Reza Khan I of Persia, but his engagement was broken off with the incidence of political troubles in Persia when the Minister of the Court was arrested.

He arrived in Shanghai in August 1933 and from November of that year until March 1934 was employed with newspaper.

"Shanghai Deutscher Zeitung," Simon Eberhardt's daily German

He had some trouble with Eberhardt and left to commence business on his own but soon failed.

Ross says he can speak and write English, French. German, Spanish, Portuguese and Persian fluently, that he is an accomplished accountant, stenographer and aviator, and in addition is a qualified medical practitioner.

He is an extremely well-dressed individual an appears to be quite a cultured gentleman, although it is known that during the last few months he has borrowed over $400.00 from various people and made no attempt to repay that sum. He gives one the impression that he is a very suave kind of individual.

Reverting to the first paragraph, Ross was placed in touch with a Greek named E. Moatsos, unemployed, who can speak Greek, English, Russian, French, Italian and Chinese (Shanghai dialect). His whereabouts in Shanghai are not known but could, undoubtedly, be soon ascertained.

Ross is not registeres at the local Brush Consulate. General fal Officer 1/c Special Branch
